MAHARSHI DAYANAND SARASWATI (1824-1883)

Maharshi Dayanand Saraswati was an advocate of Vedic values and social reform, was born in 1824 in Tankara, Gujarat, India. 2025 marks his 200th Birth Anniversary

- In 1875 he established the first Arya Samaj in Mumbai
 - 2025 marks 150 years since first Arya Samaj was established
 - There is a university built after him in Haryana named Maharishi Dayanand University
 - His goal was to revive the Vedic traditions and get rid of all the bad traditions that had corrupted Hinduism at the time
 - "Back to Vedas" was his slogan because he wanted people to return to the original teachings of the Vedas
 - His book Satyarth Prakash is one of the most important books about the Vedas even today as well! He also wrote Rig-Ved Bhasya-Bhoomika and Sanskar Vidhi
 - He was one of the first to initiate the movement for Swaraj (Self Rule) and he is most notable for helping the freedom movement of India. His views and writings have been used by different writers and have influenced other revolutionaries like Subhash Chandra Bose and Pandit Lekhram
 - He worked to help women in society. Some example of how he helped them were encouraging women's education and reading Vedas, promoting widow remarriage, and getting rid of sati pratha
 - He worked for the underprivileged section of society by providing equality in education for all
- These are some of the awesome ways Maharishi Dayanand Saraswati helped Hindu society!

MAHA KUMBH MELA 2025

The Maha Kumbh Mela is the largest spiritual gathering in the world. Held every 144 years in Prayagraj, India, this sacred festival is considered as the most auspicious time to take a dip in the Triveni Sangam – the point at which the Ganga, Yamuna, and Saraswati rivers converge. This event is centered around the centuries old belief that a dip in these holy waters will cleanse one of their sins and free them from the cycle of rebirth. Millions around the world from saints to devotees to tourists come to take part. This year it happened from January 13th to February 26th, with nearly half a billion people in attendance, some of the notable figures being Bill Gates and Laurene Powell Jobs. The Maha Kumbh Mela is a testament to India's rich cultural and spiritual heritage.
